HARRY DALTON
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT - GENERAL MANAGER

The movement continues.

The game plan mapped out a year ago by the Milwaukee Brewers was to go with youth — the talent groomed in the minor league system, which is considered the best farm organization in the majors today.

It is obvious that Executive Vice President — General Manager Harry Dalton, now in his tenth season with Milwaukee, is a firm believer in developing young talent. He remains steadfast and dedicated to that commitment. It is his philosophy. Patience has always figured into that logic.

Dalton, 58, didn't waste time in transforming a perennial second division club into a contender. Beginning in 1978 and for the next six campaigns, the Brewers were one of the most respected clubs in all of baseball, winning 518 games during that period, an average of 86 victories a year. Each season, the Brewers were viable challengers for the American League Eastern Division crown, qualifying for post-season action in successive years (1981 & 1982), capturing the American League Championship and their first trip to the World Series in 1982.

Though the Brewers have struggled the past three seasons, rebuilding a contending club has been a priority. The arrival of Teddy Higuera, Milwaukee's first 20-game winner in eight seasons; the acquisition of Rob Deer, who belted 33 home runs last season, the most by a Brewer player in three seasons; the one-two punch of Mark Clear and Dan Plesac, arguably one of the better relief pitching combinations in the game; and the development of the young pitching staff, led by Juan Nieves, Bill Wegman and Mike Birkbeck, gives the Brewers hope for the future.

In addition, the consistent play of veterans such as Paul Molitor, Robin Yount, Jim Gantner and Cecil Cooper maintains a balance of experience with that youthful eagerness.

Milwaukee continues to shine amidst baseball's elite since Dalton took the reigns nine years ago. The Brewers are ranked eighth with a .522 winning percentage (733-670 record) out of 26 major league teams. Ironically, four of the five A.L. clubs ahead of the Brewers reside in the East.

To Dalton, development isn't restricted only to ballplayers. He gave Earl Weaver, George Bamberger, Buck Rodgers, Harvey Kuenn and now, Tom Trebelhorn, Milwaukee's first year skipper, their major league managerial start, with three of them earning Manager of the Year honors.

Through the trade market, the Brewers have landed such quality talent as Deer, Clear, Don Sutton, Gorman Thomas, Jim Slaton, Ted Simmons, Rollie Fingers, Pete Vuckovich and Ben Oglivie.

In some 20 years as a general manager with the Baltimore Orioles, California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers, his reputation and successes haven't gone unnoticed. Besides a lifetime .527 winning percentage (1756-1575 record), including a superb .603 (582-383) mark with the Orioles, Dalton has been awarded The Sporting News Executive of the Year distinction twice —in 1970 with Baltimore and 1982 with Milwaukee. Six times his organization has won the Organization of The Year award, twice each with California and Baltimore and the past two seasons being recognized as the Baseball America Organization of the Year.

Moreover, Dalton is pleased with the accomplishments of players he has picked up in trades. During his tenure, he has acquired three Cy Young Award winners, three MVP recipients, nine 20-game winners, five home run champions and all-time major league record holder, Nolan Ryan, who has chalked up five no-hitters, and struck out more batters than any pitcher in the history of the game.

Dalton credits his staff for landing some of baseball's finest talent. One of the best organizational staffs in the game "The Dalton Gang" includes Assistant General Manager Walter Shannon, Special Assistants Dee Fondy, Sal Bando and Ray Poitevint, Farm Director Bruce Manno, Scouting Coordinator Dan Duquette and Eastern Supervisor Walter Youse, among others, including special assistants, scouting supervisors, managers, coaches and instructors. No one gets left out. The network of talent hunters plays a vital role in producing a winning program.

The Brewer GM has been familiar with winning for many years. After beginning his career as the Orioles assistant farm director in 1953, Dalton was promoted to farm director (1961-65) before taking control of the baseball operations as Vice President of Player Development in 1966. Under his leadership, Baltimore won four pennants (1966, '69, '70 & '71) and two World Championships (1966 & '70) before moving on to California as Executive Vice-President-General Manager for the 1972 season, and then with Milwaukee.

A former sportswriter for the Springfield (MA) Daily News while in high school and college, Dalton graduated from Amherst College in 1950. He earned a Bronze Star for his work as a combat press officer while serving in Japan and Korea as a First Lieutenant in the Air Force during his 37-month tour of duty.

Harry and his wife, the former Patricia Booker, have been married for 26 years and have three daughters — Kim, 24, a University of Arizona graduate, studying at Parsons School of Design in New York; Cindy, 21, a senior at the University of Richmond; and Debbie, 19, a sophomore at Tufts University in Medford, Massachusetts.

The Daltons reside in River Hills, Wisconsin, a northwest Milwaukee area suburb.

THE BREWER LOGO

The Milwaukee Brewers logo is beginning its 10th year of existence, following its selection from over 2,000 entries in a month-long contest that was open to the public, both amateur and professional, in October and November of '77. Tom Meindel, an Art History student at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, designed the logo and earned the $2,000 first prize. The logo combines the lower case letters "m" and "b", the club's initials, to form a baseball mitt.

THE LONG & SHORT OF THINGS

Nine records were broken when the Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox played a 25 inning, 8 hour and 6 minute game in Comiskey Park on May 8-9, 1984. They played the longest major league (8:06) and American League game (8:06 & 25 innings); longest game at Comiskey Park, the longest Brewer and White Sox game, longest game of 1984, most innings caught by a catcher (Carlton Fisk, 25) and most at bats by a Brewer (11, Cecil Cooper). Harold Baines homered off Chuck Porter with one out in the bottom of the 25th to give Chicago a 7-6 win.

The Milwaukee Brewers and Chicago White Sox set a Brewer record for the longest 9 inning game when they played 4 hours and 11 minutes on July 10, 1983 at Comiskey Park. The Brewers won the game 12-9.

The Brewers and Minnesota Twins battled 22 innings on May 12, 1972 at the old Met Stadium in Bloomington, MN, which is the longest game in Twins' history. The Brewers won the marathon 4-3, a game which took 5 hours and 47 minutes to complete.

The Brewers and California Angels raced through a 9 inning contest on May 6, 1972 in the Big-A in Anaheim, CA. The game, the shortest in both clubs' history was won by the Angels, 2-0, in 1 hour and 31 minutes.

SAVE RULE

Saves shall be awarded to relief pitchers under the following criteria:

Rule (10.20) tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all 3 of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1 inning; or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is 1 of the 1st 2 batsman he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least 3 innings.

DID YOU KNOW . . .

With Robin Yount earning the American League Most Valuable Player Award, and Pete Vuckovich earning the A.L. Cy Young Award in 1982, coupled with Rollie Fingers' sweep of the honors in 1981, it marked the first time an A.L. club won both awards in back-to-back seasons. The only other team to accomplish that was the National League Los Angeles Dodgers in 1962 and '63 when Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale and Maury Wills earned the honors.

DESIGNATED HITTER RULE

A hitter may be designated to bat for the pitcher in any spot in the batting order in any game without affecting the status of the pitcher. The designated hitter must be selected and be included on the lineup cards presented to the umpire-in-chief prior to the game. Failure to do so precludes the use of a designated hitter for that game.

The designated hitter is "locked" into the batting order but may be removed for a pinch-hitter or pinch-runner, who in turn becomes the designated hitter. The designated hitter, while still in the game may be used defensively but the pitcher then assumes the batting order of the replaced defensive player, thus terminating the designated hitter role.

The designated hitter is eligible for all American League batting titles.

SCORING RULE—PINCH HITTERS

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. (If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.)

A substitute hitter for a designated hitter is both a pinch hitter and a designated hitter on his first time at bat. On subsequent trips to the plate he is a designated hitter only.

AMERICAN LEAGUE EASTERN DIVISION SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs NEW YORK

For the first time in major league history, a divisional playoff series was established because of the split season. In the American League Eastern Division, New York, winners of the first half confronted MILWAUKEE, winners of the second half. It was the 34th time the Yankees participated in post season action while it marked the first appearance in playoff competition for the Brewers. New York took the best of five series, three-games-to-two and swept three games from Oakland to earn the American League Championship. The Yankees lost to the National League Los Angeles Dodgers four-games-to-two in the 78th World Series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs CALIFORNIA

In a dramatic and thrilling American League Championship Series, Milwaukee set a precedent in LCS play. The Brewers overcame a 0-2 deficit against California to win their first American League pennant. The Angels captured the first two games played in Anaheim and the Brewers rallied at County Stadium sweeping three straight games. The comeback performance by Milwaukee was a first in LCS history.

WORLD SERIES
MILWAUKEE vs ST. LOUIS

It was tabbed the Suds Series, and the 79th World Series between Milwaukee and St. Louis truly foamed over with exciting action as it went the limit. The Series was tied three times and each club held the advantage twice in the see-saw battle. The Cardinals won their ninth World Championship by downing the Brewers four-games to three, including winning the final two games in St. Louis. It was St. Louis' 13th trip to the World Series and Milwaukee's first trip to the October Classic.

BOB UECKER

Bob Uecker, the veteran of the Brewers announcing crew is beginning his seventeenth season as a voice of the Brewers. Known nationally as "Mr. Baseball", Bob is a versatile talent whose credits go beyond doing play-by-play.

In addition to working in the past for ABC on Monday Night Baseball broadcasts, the World Series and the League Championship Series, Bob's latest project for the network is the Friday night sitcom "Mr. Belvedere", in which he plays a sportswriter. Bob also hosts two syndicated television shows, "Bob Uecker's Wacky World of Sports" and "Bob Uecker's War of the Stars." Also among his credits are his numerous appearances on the "Tonight Show" as well as his popular roles in commercials for Lite Beer from Miller.

A former catcher who spent six seasons in the majors, Bob authored a book entitled "Catcher In the Wry", a humorous look back on the years he spent with the Braves, Cardinals and Phillies. As a player, Bob was a member of the 1964 World Champion St. Louis Cardinals. He has been honored as Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year four times ('77, '79, '80 & '82).

A native Milwaukeean, Bob and his wife, Judy, reside in Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin.

PAT HUGHES

For Pat Hughes, 1987 marks his fourth season as a Brewer broadcaster. Once again, Pat will team with veteran Bob Uecker to bring Brewer fans all the action on the Brewer Radio Network. Pat kept busy during the off-season, teaming with WTMJ Radio's Brian Manthey on a special Sunday afternoon call-in show following Green Bay Packer Football games. Following the football season, Pat hosted "Talkin' Baseball", the Brewers "hot stove league" radio show, also on WTMJ. Pat also took on added duties this past basketball season as the color commentator for Marquette University basketball on WTMJ-TV.

Before coming to Milwaukee in 1984, Pat had an extensive background in broadcasting. In addition to working for both ESPN and USA Network, Pat was also sports director of Warner Amex Cube in Columbus, Ohio, and for Gill Cable (The Sports Channel) in San Jose, California. His previous play-by-play experience includes duties with the Minnesota Twins, the Columbus Clippers, of the International League, the San Jose Missions of the Pacific Coast League, and California League and Pacific Ten Conference Baseball. Pat has also worked on the pre-game, between periods and post-game shows for the Minnesota North Stars hockey team for Spectrum Sports, a cable network.

Born in Tucson, Arizona and raised in San Jose, California, Pat, a bachelor, now makes his home in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

RADIO INFORMATION
1987 BREWER RADIO NETWORK

Over 50 stations throughout Wisconsin and Michigan will carry Milwaukee Brewer games in 1987. Once again, WTMJ Radio 62 (AM), located at 720 E. Capital Drive in Milwaukee, will be the Brewer flagship station. Considered the sports broadcasting leader in Wisconsin, WTMJ Radio also carries Milwaukee Bucks basketball, Green Bay Packer football, Wisconsin Badger football and basketball. All 162 regular season games and any post-season games the Brewers may play this year will be carried, as well as 18 spring training games.

ANNOUNCERS

MIKE HEGAN

One of the most popular former Brewer players, Mike Hegan is entering his ninth season as a Brewer announcer. It will be his sixth season with WVTV/Super 18, after previously handling announcing duties for WTMJ-TV from 1978 to 1980.

A member of the original Brewers starting lineup in 1970, Mike also played with the Seattle Pilots, Oakland A's and New York Yankees, before winding up his career, once again, on the Milwaukee roster. The former 1st baseman-outfielder was a member of the 1969 All-Star Team, while with Seattle and played on the 1972 World Championship Oakland A's team. He received the Brewers' Distinguished Alumnus Award in 1985.

Upon his retirement as an active player in 1977, Mike turned to broadcasting full-time. Today, in addition to his work for WVTV/Super 18, Mike also works with the Brewers Community Relations Office. In 1985, Mike began operating "Grand Slam U.S.A.", an indoor baseball practice and instructional facility located in the Milwaukee area.

Mike, his wife, Nancy, and their sons, Shawn and J.J., have resided in Mequon, Wisconsin since 1970.

JIM PASCHKE

Veteran Milwaukee sportscaster Jim Paschke is the newcomer to the 1987 Brewer broadcasting crew. Jim will be handling play-by-play duties with Mike Hegan on WVTV Super TV-18 and the Brewer television network. In addition to his baseball duties, Jim is also the voice of Milwaukee Bucks basketball, also on WVTV-TV.

Jim comes to the Brewers with an extensive sportscasting background. Since 1980 he had been anchoring the sports desk at WITI-TV in Milwaukee, eventually being named sports director in 1984. He will continue to have reporting assignments at the station. A versatile talent, Jim's previous play-by-play experience includes Wisconsin Badger football and basketball, Milwaukee Admirals hockey, Marquette University basketball and CART-ASA-NASCAR auto racing. Paschke has also served as a radio replacement commentator for Brewer games, and as a sideline analyst for ABC-TV in the United States Football League. Before coming to Milwaukee, Jim worked at TV stations in Madison, Wisconsin, Peoria, Illinois, and Sioux City, Iowa.

A finalist for 1985 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year, Jim has been honored by the Badger Chapter of American Women in Radio and Television as Newscaster of the Year. He is also a 4-time United Press International and 2-time Milwaukee Press Club winner for Best TV Sports Report.

A Minnesota native, Jim, and his wife, Debbie, currently reside in the Milwaukee area.

MILWAUKEE BREWER PLAYERS WITH 200 HIT SEASONS

Three players have surpassed the 200 hit mark in one season while wearing a Brewer uniform, led by Cecil Cooper, who accomplished the feat three times. Cooper set a club record in 1980 when he pounded out 219 hits and he also accomplished the feat in 1982 (205) and 1983 (203). Robin Yount (210) and Paul Molitor (201) have also accomplished the feat, as Yount, Cooper and Molitor finished 1-2-3 in the American League in hits in 1982, marking the first time that has happened since the 1915 Detroit Tigers.

Robin Yount	210	1982
Cecil Cooper	205	1982
Cecil Cooper	203	1983
Paul Molitor	201	1982

From 1980-86, the 200 hit mark was tied or surpased 30 times by 21 players, led by Wade Boggs, who has accomplished the feat four times. Don Mattingly and Cecil Cooper have done it three times.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

Only two Milwaukee Brewers have ever hit for the cycle in a game, with Mike Hegan doing it back in 1976 and Charlie Moore accomplishing the feat in 1980. Hegan managed to hit a double, homer and a triple off Detroit's Mark "The Bird" Fidrych on September 3, 1976 in Tiger Stadium and completed the task by hitting a single off Bill Laxton. He finished the day with four hits in five at bats including a walk, scoring twice and driving in six runs. Moore hit for the cycle on October 1, 1980 at California, singling off Ed Halicki, homering off Chris Knapp, tripling off Dave Schuler and finally doubling off Mark Clear. He went four-for-five in the game, with three runs scored and three RBI, adding two stolen bases, capping his best single game performance in his career.

200 HOME RUN CLUBS

Only Boston, Detroit, Minnesota and Milwaukee of the American League and Atlanta, Brooklyn and New York/San Francisco Giants of the National League have had two 200 plus home run seasons.

BEHIND THE SCENES

John Adam is in his 7th season as the Milwaukee Brewers trainer. Adam, 32, was a pitcher in the Baltimore Orioles minor league system before joining the Brewer organization in 1978 as a minor league trainer. He earned an A.A. Degree from East Los Angeles College and also attended Cal-State University at Dominguez Hills. Born in Gardena, California, John, his wife, Patty and their daughters, Jacqueline and Ellison, make their home in Scottsdale, Arizona during the off-season.

Tony Migliaccio, 23, is in his second season as the Brewers Equipment Manager. "Migs" had been the assistant clubhouse attendant from 1982-85 and had been a bat-boy for 3 seasons prior. A graduate of Milwaukee Pius High School, he has an Associate Degree from Central Arizona College and attended Arizona State University and the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Born and raised in Milwaukee, Tony and his wife, Lisa, live in Mesa, Arizona.

Bob Betts is in his 12th season as the Brewers Public Address Announcer. Betts is the Program Director at WMSE-Milwaukee School of Engineering. Born and raised in Clinton, Iowa, Bob has been in broadcasting for most of his adult life, coming to Milwaukee in 1965. He worked at several local radio stations as well as recording commercials and had been the Alumni Director at MSOE. He and his wife, Rita, live in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

Ed and Marty Wellskopf handle the Brewers media hospitality duties in both the press and service rooms. Ed is a veteran dating back to the Milwaukee Braves' era while Marty has been on hand for the past 9 seasons. Ed his wife, Dorothy and son, Marty, live in West Allis.

FACTS ABOUT COUNTY STADIUM

The site for County Stadium was officially selected on January 11, 1949, with the initial construction beginning on October 19, 1950. The stadium's original seating capacity of 28,111 permanent seats and 7,900 portable seats had a total capacity of 36,011 for the stadium's first event: an exhibition baseball game between the Milwaukee Braves and Boston Red Sox on April 6, 1953.

On October 6, 1953, the construction of additional permanent seating was approved, increasing the capacity to 43,394 for the 1954 baseball season. The outfield wall was constructed in 1961 and permanent bleachers were added in centerfield during the 1961 season. In 1962 the moving ramps were installed and in 1964 improvements for television and photographic facilities and the erection of temporary bleachers were completed, bringing the total number of bleacher seats to 10,591.

Additional improvements included a remodeled football pressbox in 1972; a new lighting system in 1973; additional seating (3,400) in 1974; a remodeled baseball pressbox in 1974; and additional seating (4,400) in 1975, bringing the capacity to the present 53,192.

In addition, the Milwaukee Brewers built a new electronic scoreboard in April, 1980 and an outdoor scoreboard in April, 1984, both of which were donated to Milwaukee County. The most recent addition occured this winter, when permanent cement bleachers were constructed.
